

BACKPACK STUFFING EVENTS & School Supply Drives

What can you do?

Backpack stuffing events and school supply drives are a popular corporate volunteer activity that Back to School Clothing Drive offers to corporations and small businesses.

But... Why?

This is a great team building project for organizations that encourages corporate volunteerism in their employee workforce.

We have built our corporate backpack stuffing project as an onsite activity so those that are unable to leave the campus can still give back to their communities.

Join companies like...

and many more who make this an annual team building exercise!
